This Data Processing Addendum (“DPA”) forms part of the Order Form and Agreement (the “Agreement”) between Actabl Holdings, LLC and its Affiliates (collectively, “Actabl” or “Processor”) and Customer for the purchase of Services from Actabl and reflects the parties’ agreement with regard to the Processing of Customer Personal Data.

By signing the Agreement, Customer enters into this DPA on behalf of itself and, to the extent required under Data Privacy Law, in the name and on behalf of its Affiliates, if and to the extent Actabl Processes Personal Data for which such Affiliates qualify as the Controller. For the purposes of this DPA only, and except where indicated otherwise, the term “Customer” includes Customer and its Affiliates. All capitalized terms used but not defined in this DPA shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Agreement.

In the course of providing the Services to Customer pursuant to the Agreement, Actabl will Process Customer Personal Data, and the Parties agree to comply with the following provisions with respect to Processing of Customer Personal Data, each acting reasonably and in good faith. For the avoidance of doubt, each reference to the DPA in this DPA means this DPA including its Schedules.

“Services” means the Services (as defined in the Agreement) and access to and use of the Actabl platform and any other services provided by Actabl pursuant to the Agreement, including pursuant to any related Order Form and/or exhibits (as defined and/or located in the Agreement).

“UK International Data Transfer Addendum” means United Kingdom’s Information Commissioner’s Office’s International Data Transfer Addendum to the EU Commission Standard Contractual Clauses, issued pursuant to S119A(1) Data Protection Act 2018, and is incorporated into this DPA and available at <https://ico.org.uk/media/for-organisations/documents/4019539/international-data-transfer-addendum.pdf>.

The UK International Data Transfer Addendum, including but not limited to the Part 2: Mandatory Clauses, are hereby incorporated into this DPA to the extent the Services contemplate the export of Personal Data from the United Kingdom to jurisdictions not recognized by a competent data protection authority in the United Kingdom as providing an adequate level of data protection without other safeguards.

2. PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA

2.1 Details of the Processing. The parties acknowledge and agree that with regard to the Processing of Customer Personal Data, Customer is the Controller, Actabl is the Processor and that Actabl or its Affiliates engaged in the Processing of Customer Personal Data will engage Sub-processors to Process Customer Personal Data on their, and ultimately the Controller’s, behalf subject to the requirements set forth in Section 5 “Sub-processors” below. The subject matter, duration of the Processing, the nature and purpose of the Processing, the type of Personal Data and categories of Data Subjects Processed under this DPA are further specified in Schedule 1 (Details of the Processing) to this DPA.

2.2 Customer’s Processing of Personal Data. Customer shall in its use of the Services Process Personal Data, including through its engagement of Actabl as Processor, in accordance with the requirements of Data Privacy Law. For the avoidance of doubt, Customer’s instructions for the Processing of Customer Personal Data shall comply with Data Privacy Law. This DPA and the Agreement are, at the time of signature of the Agreement, Customer’s complete and final documented instructions to Actabl for the Processing of Customer Personal Data, and Customer’s configuration of the Services shall constitute an additional documented instruction to Actabl. The parties agree that a Customer instruction shall be deemed to have been given by Customer to Actabl for any act or omission of Actabl within the framework of the Agreement and any Order Form or this DPA, including any anonymization or deidentification of Customer Personal Data as a consequence of which such data is no longer Customer Personal Data. Any additional or alternate instructions must be agreed upon and documented separately. Actabl will Process Customer Personal Data in compliance with Data Privacy Law, provided however that Actabl shall not be in violation of this contractual obligation in the event that Actabl’s Processing of Customer Personal Data in breach of Data Privacy Law is attributable to the documented instructions of Customer or is otherwise due to acts or omissions of Customer; provided further, that Actabl shall inform Customer if in Actabl’s opinion any instruction given by the Customer violates or is otherwise non-compliant with Data

Privacy Law. Actabl's obligation to Process Customer Personal Data only on the instructions of Customer in accordance with this Section 2.3 shall be subject to an exception for any Processing by Actabl in contravention of, or additional to, such instructions that is required by Data Privacy Law. Where Actabl is compelled by Data Privacy Law to Process Customer Personal Data, Actabl shall promptly notify Customer before performing the Processing so compelled unless Data Privacy Law prohibits Actabl from so notifying Customer.

Actabl shall make available to the Customer all information, to the extent Actabl is in possession of such information, necessary for Customer, as Controller, to meet its obligations under Data Privacy Law, and allow for and contribute to audits, including inspections, conducted by the Customer or another auditor mandated by the Customer in all cases subject to and in the manner provided for in Section 6 hereof and in compliance with Clause 8.9 of the Standard Contractual Clauses.

2.5 Use of Data by Actabl. For avoidance of doubt, with respect to Customer Personal Data that has been deidentified, anonymized, pseudonymized, masked and/or aggregated (referred to as "Deidentified Data"), but for (i) Customer Personal Data subject to EU Data Protection Laws, includes only Customer Personal Data that has been anonymized in accordance with the EU Data Protection Laws and for (ii) Customer Personal Data subject to the CCPA, includes only Customer Personal Data that has been deidentified in accordance with the CCPA), as well as data which is created, generated, organized, formatted, derived, trained, ensembled, or based from or on Deidentified Data, Actabl has the right to use such Deidentified Data in any manner consistent with Data Privacy Law including the right to (a) use all of the foregoing for its own internal business purposes, (b) modify the Deidentified Data, (c) aggregate or combine the Deidentified Data with other data, (d) disclose Deidentified Data to third parties, (e) use the Deidentified Data in demonstrations of products and services to third parties, and (f) license, assign, convey and/or transfer ownership of Deidentified Data and any or all of Actabl's rights thereto to third parties.

3. Actabl PERSONNEL

3.1 Confidentiality. Actabl shall ensure that its personnel engaged in the Processing of Customer Personal Data are informed of the confidential nature of the Customer Personal Data, have received appropriate training on their responsibilities and have either executed written confidentiality agreements committing them to holding the Customer Personal Data in confidence or are under an appropriate statutory obligation of confidentiality. Actabl shall ensure that such confidentiality obligations survive the termination of the personnel engagement.

To the extent that Customer is unable to independently address a Data Subject Request through the Services, then upon Customer's written request Actabl shall provide reasonable assistance to Customer to respond to any Data Subject Requests.

4.3 Data Subject Requests to Actabl. If a Data Subject Request is made directly to Actabl, it shall, to the extent legally permitted and to the extent Actabl is able to identify that the request comes from a Data Subject whose Personal Data was submitted to the Services by or on behalf of Customer, promptly notify Customer. Actabl shall not respond to a Data Subject Request without Customer's prior written instruction to do so except (a) to confirm that such request relates to Customer, to which Customer hereby agrees and (b) as required by law applicable to Actabl, in which case Actabl shall to the extent permitted by applicable law inform Customer of that legal requirement before Actabl responds to the request. Customer shall be solely responsible for responding substantively to any such Data Subject Requests or communications involving Customer Personal Data.

5. SUB-PROCESSORS

5.1 Use of Sub-processors. Customer acknowledges and agrees that (a) Actabl's Affiliates may be retained as Sub-processors; and (b) Actabl and Actabl's Affiliates, respectively, may engage third-party Sub-processors for the provision of the Services and related Processing of Customer Personal Data. Where Actabl engages any Sub-processor as described in this Section 5:

(ii) Actabl will enter into a written agreement with the Sub-processor and, to the extent that the Sub-processor is performing the same Processing services that are being provided by Actabl under this DPA, Actabl will impose on the Sub-processor the same contractual obligations that Actabl has under this DPA; and

(iii) Actabl will remain responsible for its compliance with the obligations of this DPA and for any acts or omissions of the Sub-processors that cause Actabl to breach any of Actabl's obligations under this DPA.

Such Sub-processor list includes the identities of such Sub-processors, their country of location as well as the type of processing they perform.
